

COU 641-001: Theories of Counseling (3 credits)

Instructor: Paige Faust, M.S., LPCC-S (KY)

Office Hours: By appointment

NKU E-mail: conceptual framework, this course aims to help students conceptualize the links between the various schools of counseling thought and provide them a lens through which to better comprehend the theories' relevance and applicability.

Prerequisites:

Required Materials

Lost connections: Uncovering the real causes of depression—and the unexpected solutions.

Theories of counseling and psychotherapy: A case approach (4th ed)

Course Requirements

Class Attendance and Participation

absences will prevent completion of course requirements.

More than two

Examinations.

Assignment Format and Submission:

Name (full last name, first initial)_Title of Assignment Course Designation

NOTE:

It is important students communicate clearly, directly, and promptly with the instructor when a circumstance arises that may impact their ability to engage in the course.

Course Grading

professional performance dispositions

Grading Scale

Grading Scale

- A
- A
- B+
- B
- B-
- C+
- C
- F

Note: Per the Counseling Program Student Handbook, any student receiving a grade lower than a B-minus in this course will need to repeat the course the next time it is offered.

Please be sure to review the University Common syllabus:

Tentative Course Schedule

Date:

Course Session Topics:

Reading & Assignments Due:

Date:

Course Session Topics:

Reading & Assignments Due:

Date:

Name/Pronoun

Knowledge and Skill Outcomes

standards

evaluated in connection with CACREP Key Objective Assessments are in bold.

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

CACREP Key Objective Assessment 2.F.5.a:

-

-

-

CACREP Key Objective Assessment 2.F.5.b:

-

-

-

CACREP Key Objective Assessment 2.F.5.c:

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

CACREP Key Objective Assessment 2.F.5.h:

-

-

-

CACREP Key Objective Assessment 2.F.5.i:

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

CACREP Key Objective Assessment 2.F.5.j:

-

-

-

CACREP Key Objective Assessment 2.F.5.k:

-

-

-

CACREP Key Objective Assessment 2.F.5.n:

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-