PREAMBLE	1
SECTION ONE: RESPONSIBILITIES OF CHAIRS/DIRECTORS	1
I. Program Mainte

PREAMBLE

The Department chair/School director is an administrator and a member of the faculty with major responsibility for leadership of an academic unit. This leadership is exercised through constructive concern for the academic performance of the department/school in light of goals and missions set by the disciplines, the college, and the University. The chair/director must be thoroughly involved with academic planning and with faculty development to ensure the continued vitality of the department/school.

g. Terms of Appointment

- i. A term of appointment for an academic department chair/school director is four years. Continuing in the position from year to year within any term is contingent upon annual reviews by the department/school faculty and evaluation and approval by the dean.
- ii. Department chairs/school directors are initially appointed for a single term (See #1.)
- iii. The dean, in substantive consultation with the department/school and the provost, may reappoint a chair/director for additional terms.
- iv. Re-appointment for additional terms must be approved by the dean and the provost.

III. Internal Search

If the internal appointment of a chair/director is required by institutional constraints and the appointment is to be continuing, affirmative action procedures appropriate to internal searches will be followed. Furthermore, to insure fairness, the position announcement, candidate qualifications, interviews, and appointment will conform as closely as possible to the criteria for external searches.

IV. Acting Chairs/Directors

If a vacancy is to be filled by an acting chair or director, the dean, in consultation with the department/school faculty, will recommend to the provost a member of the NKU faculty to serve until a continuing appointment can be made. Acting chairs/directors will serve on a semester-to-semester basis; the dean must recommend their remaining in the position until circumstances permit the appointment of a permanent chair/director. However, no one shall remain as acting chair/director for more than 24 months. Should an acting chair/director be appointed to the permanent position following an writing in advance of, or in conjunction with, the appointment.

SECTION THREE

TERMS OF APPOINTMENT OF CHAIRS/DIRECTORS

I. Review

After consultation with the department/school faculty and other appropriate persons, the dean will conduct an annual performance review based upon the duties of the chairs/directors delineated in this handbook. Recommendations by the dean for continued appointment and salary increases will be based upon the findings articulated in the performance review. Apart from the normal review process, the dean, the chair/director, or a majority of the department/school faculty may request a formal review of performance at any time, for the purpose of determining whether the chair/director should continue in the position. The procedure for this review will be written by the dean, in consultation with the chair/director and department/school faculty, prior to the review taking place. Prior to the end of a contract year, following consultation with the tenured faculty of the department/school and others as appropriate, a chair/director may be relieved of his/her duties by the dean, and the position declared vacant.
